

Winery: Adegas Eidos
Brand name: Eidos de Padriñán
Color: White
Vintage: 2015
Vintage calibration: Very Good
Released: march 2016

Plots: Own plots from Adegas Eidos and plots under Adegas Eidos control, from Padriñán area

Town: Sanxenxo
Area: O Salnés / D.O. Rías Baixas
Lands: Granitics

Orography: Slopes
Orientation: South
Climate: Atlantic climate protected from Northern winds

Types of grape: 100% albariño grape
Vines age: >20 years
Culture techniques: Vine arbor

Production per Hc: 6000 kg / Hc
Harvest: Hand picking selection by plots in 16 kg crates.
Harvest date: End September, beginning of October

Elaboration: There is a second grape selection on the winery, afterwards the grape is stripped for the criomaceration process.

Bottles: 30.000 bottles bordelesa of 0,75l.

Technical details:

Alcohol content: 12,5%

Tasting notes:

Bright, pale and greenish yellow colour with lots of white and bone fruits. Floral notes and mineral finish.

On mouth is fresh, gliceric and greasy with a nice long finish.