REVIEWS

94 POINTS It begins with an inviting aroma of vanilla, black cherry and chocolate. On the rich and full palate, there are flavours of black currant, plum, dark chocolate and coffee. On the finish, there are notes of cloves, pepper, vanilla and chocolate. The texture is elegantly polished.

John Schreiner

Savoury with juicy, meaty, almost bacon notes mid-palate. Aromas of cassis and wild blackberry.

Natalie Maclean

The 2013 Red Icon returns favour to what was observed in '11 and seemed to have softened in '12. The taut, muscular, interminability is back and harmonized as one, in a blend that changes lanes and leaders...Though a collapsing at some far away finish line will happen, the tape is stretched with a long-distance runner in mind. The flavours are so very broad, like the wine's shoulders and the acidity flanks with great support. It's like this one is a developing teenager with muscles and bones stretched over a coat-hanger. What a specimen. Drink 2018-2028. Michael Godel
