

2 of a kind 2019

In the leading roles: Blaufränkisch, Zweigelt
The most autochthonal grape varieties with indigenous character.

Organically grown on limestone, schist and sedimentary soils.

Handpicked, spontaneous fermentation, left two weeks on the skins, matured in large, old oak casks.

Natural sedimentation, gentlest filtration. Low sulphur management.

Made with conscientious handcraft and great care throughout the entire life cycle.